THE HOLLY HAWK

I guess you can't have any troubles since you don't want to get married. I've learned better than to try to argue with you about getting married. But you know I'm right. Everybody should get married. Don't you want my mother to make you a beautiful wedding dress like she's going to do for me. I'll tell you what you can be my official babysitter that is if you will promise not to try out any of your radical ideas on my young'uns.

Anne, if you don't want me writing in all this space its just too bad because I tried to call you and your line was busy so you will just have to grin and bear it.

Anne, I think you are the sweetest, the cutest, the nicest (& lots other things) girl that I know? And ~~but~~ Anne did you know that this is "National lie week"?

No, really Anne you are a very sweet girl but not half as sweet as me and no matter how hard you try you can never catch up with me because you were born too late. I will be out of college before you even get started good. Remember I'm going to be a friend to all little orphans. Maybe someday you will want to adopt one and I won't let you have it because I will remember back over the days to that time when you said you didn't ever ~~want~~ want any young'uns. So see it doesn't pay to talk around friends.

Remember all our nice ride's in the dear old "Olds." It is a good thing I've got my killer's permit Remember the fun I've had bringing you up that hill at your house with my foot stuck in the carburetor<sup>or</sup> or how ever you spell it. It's a good thing the speedometer is broke now Mother will never ~~know~~ know how fast I am going. I don't really drive fast though, do I ???

Remember the night we slept in your playhouse on that single bed. "Lucie" <sup>was</sup> was with us and a few cats also.

I will always remember the fun I've had gouching you. Especially at pajama parties when you were trying to get a little ~~bit~~ bit of sleep. But I figured that if I was going to stay awake all ~~the~~ night then you were too. Wonder why I was always the only one to stay up all night. Wonder why you and me always went to bed dancing & got up dancing even when we were so dizzy headed we could hardly stand up. Remember the pajama party New Year's eve when I shot those firecrackers Larry gave me (about 15 til 2:00) & Daddy said he slept good all night & didn't hear any noises but mother ask me who ~~blow~~ blew up the gas tank outside her window.

Boy, those have been the good old days. I hope we will have many more like them to come in the ~~future~~ future. Maybe the party Sat.
night will cause as big as a feud as the Valentine party caused. Give this "town-between-the-signs" <sup>T.M.</sup> something to talk about. Just wait until Halloween. Boy oh boy!!! Sweet lights good bye! I hope no more cars are stolen. ha, ha
Well know, I just thought of something else
I forgot to say so I guess I will continue again on the page right after the next one. Boy there is nothing stingy about you is there? I knew it you're concerted!!

...young to... to...
 stuff to say and you're running out of room.
 Now, I tell you only come up to say have to call Russell. Now you can't say anything like that about
 because you don't know better. Let me
 see to see that

We, the Annual Staff of 1959-1960, have endeavored to present naturally and vividly a bit of the sunshine and the shadows of our last year at our beloved Alma Mater. Perhaps in years to come, this book may bring a smile to a tired face and awaken hidden memories or spur a weary heart on to greater things.

Foreword

"The old jailhouse" just think next year we will be in a new jailhouse. Maybe it will make school life almost endurable.

you - but instead of you I mean if I was real good looking, old enough + had a car and plenty of money. I guess you would never have to worry about it then. would you? I am determined to fill this whole page. I don't know what with but something I just have to fill it. It's just the principle of the thing.

Contents

P.S. again - I think this is the shortest book I have ever written. I hope I don't have to write another one real soon. My poor fingers excuse writing.

I hope I'm not really this sloppy but I had to get you back for what you did to my annual. he, he

Do now do you understand why I haven't filled it? No I didn't think you did. Well, I suppose I must draw my book to a close + write you out of space + I have to write something out to you my beautiful letter for names what? I think I was low with a couple. I it was wonderful. I hope you will always remember me as your best friend. No matter how many more friends you acquire a description near the top of your list.

Kind regards,
Janet

P.S. found you did it. I don't know what you thought I was going to be a book. You don't

Ann,

I am sorry I did not get to write in your annual, but I could not find any space to write on, and if I could find any space to write on I would not be able to write on the space to write on because I can't think of anything to write on the space to write on.

I found some space to write on, but I couldn't find anything to write with on the space to write on, that is anything that would write good, on the space to write on.

Well, I found something to write with, on the space to write on, so I am going to write on the space to write on.

I have enjoyed all these years, being in school with you, and getting into trouble, and hope to have many more (at least 3). I would like to (or to just be nice) wish you all the luck and happiness for the future.

Anne,
It has been
a privilege being
a friend of yours
for all these (4) years.
I'm glad you don't take any jokes too seriously. I really enjoy having you drop some in from time to time. I'm sure you will be a success at any thing you undertake. I'm glad our p.s. I'm glad our car seat will move now with you sitting on it.

Come,

It has been nice knowing you even if I never got to know you very well
I wish you the very best of luck

Anne,

I really don't know where to begin. I have so many things I could say. I suppose there is no need telling you all the stuff everybody says. You know the bit "it's been nice knowing you" & all that jazz.

My life wouldn't have been as complete if I hadn't known you. Something would definitely have been missing. You have served many purposes in my life. The most important ~~among~~ among these has been the greatest friend a girl could ask for. Of course you have also been my advisor in all my problems and I think you know what problems I mean.

We have had many, many good times together. I'm sure you could never forget them even if you wanted enough space to list all of them. Remember the "snipe hunt". Boy wasn't it fun pulling that one off on those poor unfortunate girls. Wonder if they really think pig's tracks look like snipe tracks. ha, ha. Always remember our many parties. I know you could never forget the Valentine's party. Remember what you put in the ~~paper~~ <sup>paper</sup> and all the fuss it caused. Almost a full fledged war. Remember the parties strictly for girls, the long conversations sitting out in your porch swing in the moonlight. Never forget all the fun you had teaching me to waltz. (the fun came from watching me flub)

Remember the Sat. night ~~at~~ <sup>at</sup> the campgrounds when we were walking around with me and Alan and we decided to sit down under one of the tents and watch Betty and "Tex" to go by.

(Reserved for Janet)

It just happened to be dark on that side of the campground (that's it --- I've been wondering why Alan chose that place to sit down) I'm sorry if we embarrassed you that night but we really didn't mean to. At least I didn't. And remember the night when I was at your house and Alan came down there to see me. He had been trying to call me at your house but I had been talking to that other boy on the phone. (Jimmy Martin) remember all the trouble I had trying to explain that especially when Jimmy called me again after Alan got there and Alan talked to him (wow!!!)

And I know you could never forget all our arguments or should I say disagreements. It's a wonder that we were still on speaking terms the way we talk to each other. Your mother will just never understand us will she? Boy my mother is the "moo-test". Just like one of us. I think she understands everything. (at least tries to)

Anne, I hope that some day I will find another boy that you will approve of. I'm sorry that I couldn't have shown you before except with that one. I'm very glad that you approved of him. I think you know what I think about him. He's the nicest boy I have ever dated and that's no joke. He just isn't like most boys. He's just one in a million. I only hope I find one like him when I get ready to settle down and raise my brood (4) of children. (In about six years) I will have to continue on the ~~front~~ front page. Please don't mind me wasting all this space.
